

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT,
SUPERIOR COURT,
SINGAPORE.

B. A. Mallal, Esq.,

Editor, Malayan Law Journal.

It gives me much pleasure to learn that publication of the Malayan Law Journal is to be resumed. If the legal profession is to perform with full efficiency its proper services to the community, a periodical such as the Malayan Law Journal, providing up-to-date and accurate reports of local cases, careful criticism of local legislation and well informed articles on general legal subjects, is essential. The legal officers and members of the bar of Malaya are duly appreciative of the efforts which the staff of the Malayan Law Journal has always made to fill this need and will, I feel sure, support them warmly in future as in the past.

Sd. F. A. BRIGGS,
Wing Commander,
President, Superior Court,
Singapore.
