

H. C. 244—W 0240

CHIEF JUSTICE'S CHAMBERS
SUPREME COURT
SINGAPORE 6

Your Ref.
Our Ref.

16th September, 1972.

Mr. Faizal Mallal,
The Malayan Law Journal (Pte) Ltd.,
4-B Raffles Place,
Singapore 1.

Dear Mr. Faizal Mallal,

The death of your grand father, the late Dr. Bashir Ahmad Mallal, came as a great shock to me although all of us connected with the administration of justice knew your grand father had not been in good health for some years.

His death is a great loss to all of us for had it not been for him it would have been almost impossible for the legal profession and the Judiciary in Singapore to carry out their duties and responsibilities adequately.

The Malayan Law Journal which he founded forty years ago and of which he was the editor throughout those years is a lasting memorial and a fitting manifestation of his love for and his single-minded devotion to the law. Amidst the sorrow and the sense of deep loss that we all feel at his death, I am sure we are all heartened to know that the Malayan Law Journal will continue to serve the law and will strive to maintain the high standards he has set for himself throughout his editorship.

On behalf of the Judiciary may I request you to convey to all those who have served with the late Dr. Mallal our deep sorrow at their sad loss.

Yours sincerely,

Lee Chong Jin
Chief Justice,
Supreme Court,
Singapore.