Dear Munir,

May I send you, your brothers and sisters, my sincere condolence on the death of your father, Bashir Mallal. You will remember that in the middle '30's, I used to visit your father's home in Cairnhill, when I was a classmate of your brother, Rashid.

Later, as a young lawyer, I got to know your father as a helpful and kindly man, who gave a lot of his time to help and encourage young lawyers like me get started in their careers. He deserved his LL.D. (honoris causa) for the great services he rendered to the Bar in producing the Malayan Law Journal. He was an institution at the Bar, although not an advocate and solicitor himself.

Please convey my deepest sympathies to all your brothers and sisters, in particular to Rashid, who is living away from Singapore.

*Yours Sincerely
L. S. G.*
