Mr. Faizal Mallal,
The Malayan Law Journal,
4-B Raffles Place,
Singapore 1.

Dear Faizal,

It was with great sorrow that I learned today of the death of Dr. Mallal and I write to offer my sincerest condolences to you and, through you, to other members of his family as well as to all your colleagues at the MLJ whom Dr. Mallal always regarded as part of the family. It is not necessary for me here to recount the innumerable qualities of compassion, human understanding and the enthusiasm for learning and education which he was noted for. You put it aptly when you told the press that he was a "fantastic man". He was, as you know, most helpful to me personally. All of us in the Faculty will never forget the role he played in the development of the law school as well as in our individual careers and academic undertakings.

It is consoling to know that the outstanding work and traditions which he has established will be continued by you and, as all my other colleagues in the Faculty would surely have done, I would like to assure you of my wholehearted cooperation and support to you in your leadership of the MLJ. This, I believe, is one small way of expressing my tribute to Dr. Mallal.

Yours sincerely,

(S. JAYAKUMAR)
